A SUPPLEMENT

THIS volume is published in accordance with the vote of the General Council at its meeting in Boston, January 17, 1906. As its title indicates, it is simply a Supplement to the General Register published in 1902. The Committee appointed by the Council began its work immediately on its appointment in the hope that the work would be finished and the book distributed among the State Societies by early summer; a hope that has not been realized because of long delays on the part of a few State Secretaries in transmitting to the Committee desired information. Indeed, the first half of the last month of summer had passed before all of the reports had been received.

A supplement is in many respects an uninteresting and unsatisfactory book to edit; but the Committee trusts that the volume it now places in the hands of the members of the Society will meet the object sought in the action of the Council, viz.: to furnish the names of those who have joined the Society since the Register was issued, together with accompanying genealogical data. An alphabetical list of all members of the Society, July 1, 1906, will, it is thought, give additional interest and value to the book.

The Committee takes this opportunity of urging early action by the Society towards the publication of a new General Register at some future date, to be fixed sufficiently long in advance to enable the Secretaries and Registrars of State Societies to prepare their lists of members carefully and without haste, thus insuring an accuracy which is not only desirable but most essential to a book of this character, but which the Committee is compelled to think has not yet been attained. A glance at the Corrigenda at the end of this volume will tend to confirm the Committee's opinion.

Presuming that the Secretaries and Registrars who furnished the lists of members and their lines of descent were best qualified to correct their work as it went through the press, the opportunity for so doing was extended to them, and with one or two exceptions was accepted. Therefore, as the Committee has been relieved of this responsibility, for whatever degree of accuracy the lists of each Society possess credit should be given to the Secretary or Registrar of that Society.

To all those Secretaries and Registrars who promptly sent in their reports, and who have cheerfully responded to our not infrequent inquiries, the Committee returns its hearty thanks, and especially to those who have so kindly added to the value of the Supplement by furnishing the seals of their Societies, and pictures of memorials of important events in colonial history.

The Committee would also gratefully acknowledge the kindness of his Honor, Chief Justice Aiken of Massachusetts, for the pictures of the "Old Forts" at Greenfield and Heath; and of Miss Annie B. Jennings, of New York, and Mr. Richard A. Perry, of Southport, Conn., for their interest in securing for the Supplement the picture of the monument commemorating the Great Swamp Fight in Fairfield, Conn.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, It is desirable that there should be adequate celebrations commemorative of the events of Colonial History happening from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775:

Therefore, The Society of Colonial Wars has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of those events, and of the men who, in military, naval, and civil positions of high trust and responsibility, by their acts or counsel, assisted in the establishment, defence, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth founders of this nation. With this end in view, it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials relating to the American Colonial period, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community, respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

ARTICLE I. NAME.

The Society shall be known by the name and title of the General Society of Colonial Wars.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor, or marine, or as a privateersman, under authority of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General, or member of the Council, or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or legislative body in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

(d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants, or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

One collateral representative of an ancestor such as above specified shall be eligible for membership, provided there be no existing lineal descendant, and provided that such person be the oldest collateral representative in the male line of such ancestor, or has filed with the Secretary-General of the Society written renunciations from all other persons having nearer claims to representation.

No State Society shall adopt any rule of eligibility for membership which shall admit any person not eligible for membership in the General Society.

But any State Society may, except as to members transferred from another State Society, further restrict, at its discretion, the basis of eligibility for membership in its own Society.

ARTICLE III.
GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society of Colonial Wars shall consist of the societies now existing in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and District of Columbia, and such other State Societies as may from time to time be duly organized and authorized by the General Society.

Whenever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution it shall be held to include within its meaning the Territories of the United States and the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE IV.
OFFICERS.

The officers of the General Society of Colonial Wars shall be: A Governor-General, a Deputy Governor-General from each State Society, a Secretary-General, a Deputy Secretary-General, a Treasurer-General, a Deputy Treasurer-General, a Registrar-General, a Historian-General, a Chaplain-General, a Chancellor-General, and a Surgeon-General. With the exception of the Deputy Governors-General the above officers shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present at a General Assembly of the Society. Vacancies occurring by death or resignation may be filled by the General Council for the unexpired term. Each Deputy Governor-General shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present in the General Assembly from the State from which said Deputy Governor-General is chosen. The above officers shall serve until the next regular meeting of the General Assembly and until their successors are duly chosen.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS.

A General Assembly of the General Society shall be held every three years, at such time and place as the preceding Assembly shall appoint, or authorize to be appointed.

Special General Assemblies may be held upon the order of the Governor-General, or upon the call of the Secretary-General or Deputy Secretary-General, issued at the request of the Governors or Acting Governors of three State Societies, or else at the written request of five Deputy Governors-General.

General Assemblies shall be composed of the members of the General Council, and five delegates from each State Society, to be chosen by the State Councils respectively, or otherwise as may be prescribed by the respective State Societies; and all vacancies arising from any cause in any State Delegation may be filled for the unexpired term by the State Council concerned.

The term of service of the delegates shall be for three years and until their successors be elected.

Delegates or General Officers representing seven

State Societies shall constitute a quorum of the General Assembly for the transaction of business; the proceedings shall be in accordance with parliamentary law, and only the votes of those present shall be counted.

The order of business shall be :

First. The calling of the General Assembly to order by the Governor-General, or in his absence by the Secretary-General.

Second. Prayer by the Chaplain-General.

Third. Reading of Minutes of last General Assembly.

Fourth. Report from Secretary-General.

Fifth. Report from Treasurer-General.

Sixth. Reports from Committees and Officers.

Seventh. Unfinished Business.

Eighth. New Business.

Ninth. Reports from State Societies.

Tenth. Election of Officers.

Eleventh. Benediction by the Chaplain-General.

The minutes of each Assembly shall be read before its final adjournment.

ARTICLE VI.
STATE SOCIETIES.

Each State Society shall annually transmit to the Secretary-General a circular letter stating the number of its members, general matters of interest, and any suggestions which may be deemed of advantage to the Society. Each State Society shall, in the month of January in each year, pay to the Treasurer-General the sum of $25.00.

ARTICLE VII.
POWERS OF THE GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society shall have sole power of action in the national, as distinct from the State affairs of the organization. It shall have jurisdiction to pass upon all questions of eligibility referred to it by the Registrar-General; but shall not otherwise interfere in the regulations or government of any State Society, unless by a plurality vote of the General Assembly, when the surrender of a State charter may be demanded, should an investigation show that such action is necessary for the welfare of the Societies at large. It shall have power to grant charters to States other than those in which the Society is already organized, provided that at least nine persons duly qualified to be members make such application. It shall issue the insignia and the diploma of membership. It shall publish the Year-book with the coöperation of the several State Societies; and the cost shall be defrayed by the latter in proportion to their membership.

The General Council which shall be composed of all the General Officers shall exercise the powers of the General Society (except those of demanding State charters, and of amending the Constitution) between meetings of the General Assembly, to which latter body it shall regularly report all its transactions.

ARTICLE VIII.
GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The Governor-General, or in his absence a duly selected temporary presiding officer, shall preside at all General Assemblies and meetings of the General Council of the Society.

ARTICLE IX.
SECRETARY-GENERAL.

The Secretary-General shall be keeper of the Great Seal of the Society, and of the General Society flag, and of the diploma. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall have charge of the printing and publications of the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all meetings of the General Assembly, and of the General Council; and shall keep full record of their proceedings.

DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL.

The Deputy Secretary-General shall perform the duties of the Secretary-General in case of the death, absence from the country, or inability of the Secretary-General to act, and generally assist the Secretary-General in the performance of his duties.

ARTICLE X.
TREASURER-GENERAL.

The Treasurer-General shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit and invest them subject to the direction of the General Council. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the General Council. He shall keep a full account of his receipts and payments, and at each General Assembly, or when required by the General Council, shall render an account of the same. He shall be custodian of the die of the insignia, and may issue the insignia and rosettes.

For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the General Council may deem proper.

The Deputy Treasurer-General shall perform the duties of the Treasurer-General in case of the death, absence from the country, or inability of the Treasurer-General to act, and generally assist the Treasurer-General in the performance of his duties.

DEPUTY TREASURER-GENERAL.

ARTICLE XI.

It shall be the duty of each State Society to file with the Registrar-General a duplicate of the application of each member. The Registrar-General shall receive and file all duplicate applications upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas signed by him, and all documents which the Society may acquire. It shall also be his duty to submit to the General Council any application for membership which, in his opinion, does not fulfil the requirements of Article II. of this Constitution.

REGISTRAR-GENERAL.

ARTICLE XII.

The Historian-General shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the General Society, and shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Society may decide to publish.

HISTORIAN-GENERAL.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Chaplain-General shall be an ordained minister of a Christian Church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

CHAPLAIN-GENERAL.

The Chancellor-General shall be a lawyer duly admitted to the bar, and it shall be his duty to give legal opinions on matters affecting the Society when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XIV.
CHANCELLOR-GENERAL.

The Surgeon-General shall be a practising physician.

ARTICLE XV.
SURGEON-GENERAL.

The Great Seal of the General Society shall be: Within a beaded Annulet, a title scroll, "1607, General Society of Colonial Wars, 1775;" and in base the motto: "Fortiter Pro Patria," surrounding diaper charged with nine mullets. Over all a shield, surmounted of the crown, bearing American Colonial seals quarterly of nine: I. VIRGINIA: Argent, a cross gules between four escutcheons each regally crowned proper, the first and fourth escutcheons France and England quarterly; second escutcheon, Scotland; third, Ireland: II. NEW YORK: Argent, a beaver bendways proper, on a bordure tenny, a belt of wampum of the first: III. MASSACHUSETTS: Azure, on a mount between two pine trees vert, an Indian affronte or, belted with leaves of the second, holding in his dexter hand an arrow paleways, point downwards, and in his sinister hand a bow paleways, of the third; upon a scroll proper, issuing from his mouth, the legend, "Come over and help us." IV. NEW HAMPSHIRE: Quarterly, first and fourth grand quarter of France and England; second, Scotland; third, Ireland; over all an escutcheon of pretence; azure billetee or, a lion rampant of the second, for Nassau. V. CONNECTI-gold edge, each shield between the points displaying a mullet, and in the center, within an annulet of blue bearing the title, "Society of Colonial Wars, 1607–1775," the figure of a colonial soldier in gold relievo. The reverse of the crown of each insignia shall bear an engraved number, corresponding to that of the registered number of the member to whom such insignia has been issued.

The insignia shall be worn by the members on all occasions when they assemble as such, for any stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any occasion of ceremony. It shall be worn conspicuously on the left breast ; but members who are or have been Gentlemen of the Council of a State Society, may place a rosette of regulation pattern upon the silk ribbon from which it is pendant. Members who are or have been General Officers, or officers of a State Society, may wear the insignia with three jewels in the crown, and suspended from a regulation ribbon around the neck. Members who are or have been Governors, Deputy Governors or Lieutenant-Governors of State Societies, or officers of the General Society may, in addition to the insignia so suspended, wear a ribbon of the Society's colors, three and one-half inches in width, extending from the right shoulder to the left hip. The insignia shall be worn only as above prescribed.

The undress insignia shall be a rosette or button of the size now in use, of red watered silk with white thread edging, like the insignia ribbon.

On ordinary occasions members may wear this rosette in the upper buttonhole of the left lapel of the coat, provided it be not used at the same time with any other insignia of the Society.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS
1607 - 1775

ARTICLE XVIII. DIPLOMA.

The diploma of this Society shall bear the following words :

GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS.

To All Whom it May Concern.

Greeting : Know ye, this is to certify that on the ..... day of....., in the year of our Lord....., and in the year of this Society the ..... Gentleman, was duly elected an Hereditary Member of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of.....by right of his descent from.....

In witness whereof : We have hereunto signed our names and affixed the Great Seal of the General Society.

Officers of the General Society.

.....Governor-General.

.....Secretary-General.

.....Registrar-General.

And countersigned by the Governor, Secretary and Registrar of the State Society.

Bordering the top and left side of the diploma is an ornamental scrollwork containing within the initial letter "G." of "General Society," a representation of Captain Myles Standish and a band of colonial soldiery; the initial surmounted by the imperial crown of the British empire, and having below it the motto of the Society. Ranged along the scroll are shields bearing the arms of the original nine colonies as emblazoned in the Great Seal of the Society; and around these are emblems of colonial warfare, with the flags of Sweden and New Netherlands, and the rose, thistle, shamrock, and cornflower — badges respectively of England, Scotland, Ireland and Germany. At the center at top is a cluster of Indian weapons and the head of a Sachem charged upon the fleur-de-lis of France.

ARTICLE XIX. FLAG.

The flag of this Society shall consist of the red cross of Saint George on a white field, bearing in the center the escutcheon of the General Society surmounted by the crown and surrounded by nine stars.

ARTICLE XX. STATE SECRETARIES.

It shall be competent for the General Council to appoint State Secretaries in States where no State Societies exist, with a view to represent the interest of this Society, and, if authorized to do so, to prepare for the organization of new State Societies. Such State Secretaries shall be subject to the direction and regulation of the General Council. Their appointment shall be for a limited time, not to exceed one year, but may be renewed. They may be removed for cause, and their office shall terminate upon the organization of, and grant of a charter to, a Society in their State. They shall communicate with and receive communication from the Society through the Secretary-General.

ARTICLE XXI. MEMBERS OF STATE SOCIETIES.

The General Council shall elect to membership only charter members of new State Societies; whose membership shall be ipso facto transferred to their own State Society with the grant of its charter. No State Society shall elect to membership persons resident within the territory of another State Society, except upon written consent given in advance by the Council of the latter Society. But members changing residence from one State to another, or coming within the jurisdiction of a new State Society, may at their option retain membership in the State Society in which they were originally admitted.

A member of any State Society may be admitted to membership by action of the Council of another State Society, within the bounds of which he is resident, upon satisfactory proof of his membership in good standing in the Society from which he comes, and subject to the rules and regulations of the Society he enters.

An initiation fee shall not be twice required.

ARTICLE XXII. ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

No alteration of or amendment to this Constitution shall be made, unless proposed in writing by the Council of a State Society, or by the General Council. The Secretary-General shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to each State Society, naming the time when and place where it will be voted upon. At least ninety days' notice shall be given to each State Society. Whenever any amendment is under consideration in the General Assembly it shall be open to any modification or change germane to the proposed amendment. No such change or modification shall be made, nor shall any amendment to this Constitution be adopted, unless the same shall receive the votes of two-thirds of the members of the General Assembly present when the vote is taken.

In Memoriam.

✠

FREDERIC J. DE PEYSTER,

GOVERNOR-GENERAL,

1893-1905.

Frederic J. de Peyster died at Lakewood, N.J., on May 11, 1905. His death was sudden, and occurred soon after the meeting of the Triennial Assembly of the General Society of Colonial Wars, on May 4, at which he presided.

He was born in New York City, Feb. 5, 1839, and was the son of Captain James Ferguson de Peyster, U.S.A., and Frances Goodhue Ashton of Salem, Mass. Mr. de Peyster was a graduate of the College of the City of New York, and of the Columbia Law School. He was married to Augusta McEvers Morris on Oct. 10, 1871, at Morrisania, N.Y. His widow and five children survive him: Helen Van Cortlandt de Peyster, Frederic Ashton de Peyster, Frances Goodhue de Peyster, Augusta Morris de Peyster, and Ella de Peyster Shoemaker.

Descendant of one of the oldest Dutch families on this side of the Atlantic, member of a family line which has given to the country many distinguished jurists, soldiers, financiers, and men of letters, himself an able lawyer and scholar, interested in education, art, science, and civic affairs, officer and member of many charitable, benevolent, and learned societies, he graced every office and station in which he was placed. His care for the interests of the Society of Colonial Wars, and the efficiency, courtesy, and genial humor with which he presided over its General Assemblies and Councils, won for him the respect and esteem of all its members. The Society mourns the loss of a valued officer, a worthy fellow-member, a high-minded citizen, and a true gentleman.

At a special meeting of the General Council of the Society of Colonial Wars called by the Vice-Governor-General, Mr. Howland Pell, at his residence, 450 Madison avenue, New York City, May 31, 1905, the following resolutions were carried unanimously, in silence, by a rising vote:

"Assembled for the first time without the presence of our Governor-General, Frederic J. de Peyster, and, full of grief and sorrow at the loss we have sustained in his death, we desire to record our personal love for him and our appreciation of his character and work.

"The first Governor-General of this Society, he watched it through its early difficulties, and in the perfection of the discharge of his duties did more than any one to place the Society in the enviable position it now occupies. To him the Council always looked for wise advice in its troubles, and he never failed to guide it to the accomplishment of the best attainable results.

"Happy are we to have been associated with him for so long a period, and grateful that he was permitted to see fulfilled his desire that the Society's foundations should be strongly laid and its future work assured.

"In sorrow at his loss, and yet in thankfulness that he once directed our Council, we make this record.

"It is ordered that the Secretary-General spread the foregoing on our minutes, and that a copy thereof, duly engrossed and certified, be sent to the family of our deceased Governor-General, in loving remembrance of his affectionate and brilliant personality."

On motion duly seconded and carried, the Secretary-General was instructed to order and place on Mr. de Peyster's grave, in Trinity churchyard, on the anniversary of his death, May 11, a wreath of flowers, for two years to come, the unfinished portion of his term of office.

The meeting then adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. de Peyster.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF INDIANA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Indiana was organized April 23, 1903, in the city of Indianapolis, and chartered by the General Society May 26, 1903. Officers were elected and an organization perfected at a meeting held in Indianapolis July 1, 1903. The first annual Court and dinner was held at the University Club, Indianapolis, Feb. 10, 1905, anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Paris, 1763, on which occasion the Hon. Jacob Piatt Dunn delivered an address on "Indiana in the Colonial Period." The second general Court and dinner was held at the Country Club, Indianapolis, on June 12, 1906, when Jesse S. Reeves, Ph.D., delivered an address on "Patriotic Societies and the Historical Spirit."

NOTE.

It is suggested to members of the Society of Colonial Wars that whenever a member discovers in the Register or Supplement any error relating to his own record or that of another member, he should communicate such error with its correction to the Registrar General. This will greatly aid in securing, in the near future, an accurate Register
